Peking Day By Day

BY "QUI VIVE"

Peking, August 14.—The political volcano has rumbled and grumbled considerably during the past few days, but nothing resembling a seismic disturbance has resulted although several metaphorical sparks have been emitted at various times from Tientsin, Paoting, and Loyang—the three main "craters" of activity.

To judge from outward appearances there are many plots and counter-plots on foot, perhaps a few more than usual, but anything like an open break has not yet developed, although leading articles in the various Chinese newspapers contain reports of growing dissatisfaction between the various wings of the all powerful Chihli militaristic-political party.

According to these reports another "Ballon d'essai" has been launched from the headquarters of the Tientsin clique regarding alleged negotiations which are proceeding between it and various factions of the Fengtien group at Mukden. According to well authenticated rumors the proposals made to the Mukden war lord are that a rapprochement should exist between the two parties for the good of China (let alone their own special benefit), and that if Marshal Chang Tso-lin will agree to Marshal Tsao Kun's becoming President before the allotted three months have elapsed—September 12—no opposition will be raised to his (Chang Tso-lin's) becoming Vice-president. Furthermore as a further sop, the Tientsin clique agrees that the rolling stock which Chang has seized from the Peking-Mukden railway, shall be retained by him, likewise the salt revenue which he has collected from Manchuria.

It should be added by way of explanation, that the two last mentioned points have proved the bones of contention to any and all previous efforts of rapprochement which have been instituted hitherto.

In order not to leave General Wu Pei-fu entirely out of consideration, he is to be accorded the Inspector Generalship of Hunan and Hupeh while General Wang Cheng-ping would occupy a similar important post over Chihli, Shantung and Honan. However, those who are in a position to know state that this "shelving" of General Wu is far from the latter's liking and becoming recalcitrant he has shot the first gun in what will develop into an open rupture between the Loyang and Paoting wings of the party, by the dismissal of General Yen Chi-tang from the 20th Division of the Chihli army.

The announcement of the dismissal of Gen. Yen in army orders proved to be an effective bombshell in the plans of the Tientsin clique who had never counted upon any such drastic action. The reason for the dismissal appears to be outwardly at least that of an altercation between General Yen and General Liu Cheng-hua (General Wu's favorite) on the Honan-Shansi border, during which "altercation" there were some eight hundred killed and twice that number of casualties. The fight occurred near Tungkwan about two weeks ago, but because of political reasons, in addition to a poor system of communications due to heavy floods in that district, the news was very slow in filtering through. General Liu immediately sent to General Wu for assistance, and as soon as the latter heard of the state of affairs, he not only sent reinforcements but in addition wrote the order dismissing Gen. Yen. The latter, however, refused to take the order seriously and in turn maintained command of his troops and asked for instructions from Marshal Tsao Kun, regarding his future actions.

Marshal Tsao, realising that his trusted lieutenant was in a sorry plight, due in a measure to his own neglect in not sending funds to pay the troops, since the fight originally started over a lack of funds, conferred with Tsao Jui and instructed Gen. Yen not to hand over his command to General Wu Pei-fu's man until further orders from Paoting.

That is the status of affairs at the present time. Theoretically Gen. Yen is without a command, but actually he still commands the 20th Division of the Chihli army. However, although he occupies the territory around Tungkwan, he is surrounded by General Wu's troops and will not be able to fight his way through unless sizeable reinforcements are sent up from Paoting.

DE VALERA IS ARRESTED BY FREE STATERS, RIOT FOLLOWS

Irish Leader Taken When He Appears At Meeting

SHOTS ARE FIRED

No Chance To Escape Responsibility For Share Of Revolt

(Reuter's Service)

Dublin, August 15.—De Valera settled the doubts as to whether he would participate in the election by making his appearance at an open air meeting this afternoon. He drove up in an open car, undisguised, and was wildly welcomed by 1,500 people.

Shortly after De Valera began his speech the crowd were thrown into consternation by the appearance of a detachment of armed car. The troops surrounding the State troops and an armed the platform. The crowd shouted "Up De Valera!". De Valera made a gesture towards the military, afterwards collapsing on the platform, which was crowded. The troops fired in the air and a panic ensued, the crowd believing that De Valera was shot, but he rose, walked down the steps and surrendered himself to the troops, who marched him off. It transpired afterwards that five persons were injured in the shooting and stampede.

It appears that De Valera's collapse on the platform was due to fainting as a result probably of a kick during the stampede. Only a priest and two women and children accompanied the prisoner, pale and trembling but with head erect, to the barrack gates. Two wounded men were subsequently treated on the hospital and ten other persons including a nine-months old baby, were treated for cuts and bruises. There is a strong local feeling that the arrest will assist De Valera's election.

De Valera had been hiding for thirteen months and had been reported at various times to be in many parts in Ireland, including Dublin, but it is popularly supposed that his headquarters were at Limerick. He had been interviewed, and regularly presided over the second Dail, but the meetings had always been kept secret. Today was his first official public re-appearance.

An official statement says that De Valera's share of the responsibility for all that has happened in Ireland since the Treaty was signed has never been in doubt. He is now trying to shelter himself behind the political campaign, but he must take his share with his associates and dupes until such time as he and the others can be released without injury to the public safety.

Columbia Country Club Planning Finest Home Of Its Kind In Far East

Prospectus Issued Describing Proposed New Tls. 350,000 Clubhouse To Be Erected On Great Western Road

The building of the finest establishment of its kind in the Far East is planned by the directors of the Columbia Country Club, according to announcement made yesterday by Mr. Carr Crow, vice-president of the institution.

The new club, to be located on property recently acquired on Great Western Road near Edinburgh Road, is estimated to cost Tls. 350,000 and the plans call for the inclusion of features characteristic of both city and country clubs. The plans are to be laid before a special general meeting of the club members to be held at the present club house in Route Doumer at 5:30 p.m. August 21 and it is expected that the scheme will be ratified and preparations will go rapidly forward.

The site of the proposed club encompasses 48 mow of land and is located on the south side of Great Western Road, a few hundred yards to the west of Edinburgh Road. It is easy of access from town—one of the principal points considered in its selection—and is altogether an admirable and beautiful location for the club's new home. The cost of the land was Tls. 97,000.

DETAILS GIVEN

The judgment of the directors is that in order to attain the greatest success, any country club must offer its members a large number of both indoor and outdoor attractions. It is pointed out that in order to avail themselves of all the benefits of clubs at home, residents of Shanghai are compelled to maintain membership in several, which is both expensive and inconvenient, and the new home is being planned with an eye to eliminating this.

Among the features planned are twenty double and eight single tennis courts, croquet grounds, space for lawn bowls and clock golf and a large open air swimming pool, 42 feet wide and 100 feet long, surrounded by a Spanish pergola. Installation of a refrigerating plant by which the pool may be converted to a skating rink during the winter months also is proposed. There will be dirt and asphalt tennis courts, in order that enthusiasts may be afforded facilities throughout the year.

Plans for the building were drawn by Mr. Elliott Hazzard, prominent local architect, and are after the Spanish Mission type, which is admirably adapted to the climate, local materials and workmanship and lends itself, "with formal informality," to obtaining the most artistic effects. The type also is easily adapted to possible future additions and expansions.

"The plans show a building containing every feature which could be desired to make this the most complete plant of its kind in the Far East," says the prospectus just issued by the board of directors: "The building will be constructed of good quality local brick, lined with hollow brick for the purpose of damp-proofing, and covered on the outside with cement stucco, with a rough trowel finish. The floor foundations will be of reinforced concrete and the roof covered with locally made red Spanish tile."

LESS REES ARRANGEMENT

"It is to be particularly noted, the prospectus continues, "that virtually all rooms throughout the building face South and that no rooms, other than service rooms, are below the first floor level. Steam heat will be supplied to all rooms.

"On entering through the porte cochere, at either side and off the wide corridor are the office, cloak rooms and telephone booths, and immediately in front of the entrance is the spacious social lounge.

"At the east end of the building will be the bar and grill, the dining room and the grand ball room. The kitchens are directly beneath the dining room, so located as to avoid fumes penetrating the entire building and centrally located in order that excellent service may be rendered to the tea, dining and ball rooms. Adjoining the social lounge are mah jongg and card rooms."

A gymnasium, ample in size for basket ball, three squash courts and four bowling alleys occupies the west end of the proposed building. Adequate men's and ladies' locker rooms, with showers, are immediately adjacent to the gymnasium, bowling alleys, squash courts and swimming pool.

INTERIOR DECORATION

Appointment of a special committee to co-operate with the architect in the selection of furnishings is proposed, in order that the scheme of interior decoration may thoroughly harmonise with the interior architecture. An expert landscape gardener will be employed to survey the grounds and advise the building committee with a view to obtaining the most artistic landscape effects possible.

To develop the new plant and equip it in the elaborate fashion described, it is estimated that a final investment of Tls. 350,000 will be required and it is proposed to raise this amount by the issuance of 30 year first mortgage bonds, bearing interest at the rate of 8 percent. On the basis of the present net income, omitting any anticipatory increase in membership and revenue, it is estimated that the indebtedness thus incurred can be paid off by 1949, four years before the maturity of the debentures.

U.S. WILL STAY DRY, SAYS N.J. CONGRESS MAN

Mr. Ackerman Of New Jersey Passing Through On Jackson

"Prohibition has come to stay!"

That rather pertinent remark was made last night by Congressman Ernest R. Ackerman of New Jersey, who is a passenger on the President Jackson returning to the United States after a tour of the Far East. The remark may be considered extremely intelligent since Mr. Ackerman is a congressman from New Jersey, the state that has been making the biggest fight for the repeal of the "dry" amendment to the Constitution, and Mr. Ackerman was elected to his third term in the House by a majority of 12,000 votes over the "wet" candidate.

Congressman Ackerman arrived only late yesterday afternoon and begged to be excused from expressing any concrete opinions on the present situation in China.

"I'm not like the man who wrote the book on China after he'd been here fifteen minutes," the Congressman said. "It has been nine years since I have been in the Far East and I see an enormous improvement throughout the Orient from Japan to the Philippines. I am hardly in a position, however, to sum up my opinion of the present situation here."

NO POLITICS

Congressman Ackerman also excused himself from commenting on the situation in the Philippines where the Filipino politicos are making a determined fight in an effort to get Governor-General Wood's scalp.

"The death of President Harding has caused a temporary taboo on political fighting," he said, and I was not there long enough to make an investigation into the question that would qualify me to speak of it at the present time."

The New Jersey congressman, however, was perfectly willing to talk about politics in general in the United States, stamp collecting and travelling. He said he had known President Coolidge for some time and while he was greatly shocked at the news of President Harding's death he was glad that such a staunch man as

BRITISH ENVOY TO U.S. SCORES BRUTALITY TO IMMIGRANTS

Detention At Ellis Island Called "Hateful Experience"

HITS WIRE CAGES

Practice Of Holding Applicants For Rehearing "Diabolic"

(Reuter's Service)

London, August 16.—An outspoken account by Sir Auckland Geddes, the British Ambassador to the United States, on the conditions at Ellis Island has been published in the form of a White Paper. The Ambassador's general criticism is that the place is too small, and that what additional space available is useless because they are unventilated. He says that the officials deserve credit for what they do achieve, still detention on the Island must be a hateful experience for all of any sensibility. The immigrants are handled in wire cages like prisoners, but this is almost inevitable, though strongly resented by persons of refinement. Owing to chronic dirt, the place is pervaded by a flat stale smell, quite distinct from the pungent odour of unwashed humanity and both are met at Ellis Island. It took Sir Auckland Geddes 36 hours after leaving the Island to get rid of the aroma, which "flavored everything I ate or drank." The very heart of the tragedy at Ellis Island is in the room of those temporarily detained. Such detentions are nobody's fault and are unavoidable, unless the immigrants are finally approved for admission before they leave their own land. In practice, Sir Auckland Geddes declares, the present detention arrangement, pending a hearing of appeal against deportation, is diabolic.

C.M.S.N. CO. HAS NO INTEREST FOR SUN, BOARD SAYS

Report Of 5,000,000 Loan To Swell His War Chest Is Denied

The directorate of the China Merchants' Steam Navigation Co., Ltd., denied yesterday the report recently made by a certain foreign paper in Shanghai that the company had mortgaged its entire holding to the Hongkong and Shanghai Banking Corporation against a loan of Tls. 5,000,000, which had been remitted to Canton to form the main portion of Dr. Sun Yat-sen's war chest.

The directors asserted that the company has been liberated long ago from political struggles and has never offered its property to swell anybody's war chest. However, they admitted that they do have a loan from the Hongkong bank, while financial relations with the bank began under the Manchu regime. The loan, the board said, was for the readjustment of business and was approved by the what is known as the Shareholders Maintenance Committee, formed last year following the order by Peking to arrest its managing director, Fu Siao-en and to conduct an investigation of the conditions of the company.

MINERS YIELD IN U.S., BIG STRIKE NOW UNLIKELY

President Coolidge's Attitude Believed To Have Caused Change

(BY UNITED PRESS)

New York, Aug. 15.—It was announced here today by representatives of the miners' union that the coal diggers' leaders, after several conferences, and in view of the position taken by President Coolidge, would "would agree to a compromise if the operators would."

This is taken as a highly significant statement, coming from the miners' representatives, who heretofore have refused to yield an inch.

Friends of President Coolidge were elated when the announcement was made, as they saw clear evidence in the statement that the new president's attitude of stiffness has had the desired effect on the miners, who heretofore have shown no disposition to listen to reason, or to anything else.

In view of the miners' statement it is now thought that the much dreaded coal strike can be avoided, as the operators have repeatedly said they were willing and anxious to have the whole dispute submitted to arbitration.

(BY UNITED PRESS)
(Special To The China Press)

Aug. 16.—Following the first meeting of the Cabinet President Calvin Coolidge conferred with newspapermen in the same manner that the late President did and made an annoucement that the Harding policies would be adhered to by his administration, including the continued collection of the debts owed by the European powers.

The President said that the United States would be glad to respond to any invitation extended by the European powers which showed any possibilities for settling the reparations question. He also promised that he would continue the budget system inaugurated during the Harding regime and would do everything possible to economise in governmental expenditures so that taxation would be kept at the lowest possible level.

Traffic Court Busts A Few Records On Its Own Account

The Special Traffic Branch of the Mixed Court did a little speeding on its own account yesterday and hung up a record by trying 54 traffic cases in 55 minutes by the watch.

The procession of chauffeurs through the prisoners' dock was so rapid that it left these scorchers of the highways in a daze, while the musical chink of the dollars dropping into the clerk's strong-box provided accompaniment for the parade. The drivers slid through the courtroom at a pace corresponding to their usual rate along the Ma Loo. The presiding officers at this high-velocity session were Assessor Allman and Magistrate Li, whose efforts to clear up the large number of cases on the docket were admirably aided by the succinct testimony of the police witnesses. The offenses were all of minor nature and fines ranged between $2 and $10.

In all 92 traffic cases were heard yesterday, one of the heaviest days on record.

Press Hails News As Down Of Bright Future For Country

Exclusive Dispatch To THE CHINA PRESS

Mexico City, Aug. 15.—The agreement reached by the commissioners representing the United States and Mexico which is expected to lead to a resumption of diplomatic negotiations between the two Republics was signed today. Mr. John Barton Payen, former head of the United States Shipping Board, and Mr. Charles Beecher Warren, former Ambassador to Japan, the two commissioners sent to Mexico by President Harding, signed on behalf of the United States.

Under the agreement a solution of the difficulties raised as a result of the Mexican Constitution under which foreigners were deprived of their oil rights and other agrarian problems was reached with the general understanding that Mexico will in the near future float a loan in the United States to pay all foreigners whose lands were confiscated under the new constitution.

The agreement is generally hailed by the Mexican press as the dawn of a bright future for Mexico.

The negotiations lasted 12 weeks. The United States representatives will depart for Washington immediately to submit the records to the Administration. It is believed that Mexico's interpretation of her sub-soil petroleum and agrarian legislation will be acceptable to the United States and that the appointment of an American Ambassador to Mexico will not long be delayed.

Bootlegger's Tip Leads To Arrest Of Counterfeiter

Java Bank Sees Growing Interest In East Indies

(Reuter's Service)

The Hague, August 15.—The annual report of the Java Bank refers to the increasing interest of foreign businessmen in the Dutch East Indies, mentioning particularly the purchase of 35,-199 acres, mostly of cultivated land, by a British concern.

The report says that, while the separation of the currency of the Indies from the currency of Holland is desirable, it would not be in favor of Holland because it would lead to increased finishing of Dutch East Indian produce by London and New York.

SOVIET SUES TO RECOVER RUSS REFUGEE SHIPS

Two Suits Filed Against Admiral Starck In Philippines

One of the biggest legal battles in the history of the Philippines is expected to take place both in the court of first instance of Zambales and in the supreme court when the two suits filed by Attorney Julian A. Wolfson on behalf of the Russian Socialist Federated Soviet Republic against Admiral George C. Starck, commander of the Russian refugee fleet now in the harbor of Olongapo, and his men is heard, according to word received in Shanghai last night. All of the ships brought refugees to Woosung last December. The suits have been filed to recover possession of the eleven Russian ships now under the command of Admiral Starck.

The suits were filed with the court of first instance of Zambales, it being the only court having jurisdiction on the case, but efforts are being made by Attorney Wolfson himself to have the case heard in Manila.

In connection with the two complaints, Attorney Wolfson has also petitioned the court of first instance of Zambales to issue a writ of preliminary injunction, restraining the defendants, their attorneys, representatives and agents from disposing of the vessels or removing them from the jurisdiction of the court of Zambales, or tampering with them in any manner.

The two suits filed by Attorney Julian A. Wolfson on behalf of the Soviet government of Russia are designed not only to secure recovery of the eleven Russian vessels now under the command of Admiral Starck but also to obtain damages from the defendants. In the first complaint the plaintiffs seek to recover possession of ten of the vessels as follows:

Baikal, 1,200 tons; Swyr, 1,000 tons; Magnit, 900 tons; Batarola, 900 tons; Petrokl, 600 tons; Ulias, 900 tons; Diemid, 680 tons; Ilia Muromeitz, 550 tons; Paris, 240 tons and Tarcater, 180 tons.

These vessels, according to the complaint, in spite of their deteriorated and depreciated condition, are worth at least $50 a ton, which makes the total value of the ten ships at P32,500. The defendants are also alleged to have removed a large quantity of brass and copper belonging to the vessels and for this the plaintiffs seek damages in the amount of $20,000.

In the second complaint, Attorney Wolfson seeks the recovery of possession for the Soviet government of the steamer Varivatel of 700 gross tons, now also located in Olongapo harbor. It is claimed that Admiral Starck and his men used the Varivatel in taking off passengers and crew from the steamer Kumang which went aground off the east of Luzon last May, collecting for such services about P50,000 to which the plaintiffs are entitled.

The plaintiffs charge Admiral Starck with posing as a Rear-admiral of the Imperial Russian Navy and some of his men as officers of the same Navy when it is known that there has not existed for a long time any Imperial Russian Government or an Imperial Russian Navy. It is also averred that the vessels, when first taken possession of by Admiral Starck and his men were in good order and condition but they have badly deteriorated through alleged abuse, misuse and lack of proper care by the defendants.

In connection with the filing of the suits against Admiral Starck and his men, Attorney Wolfson has issued the following statement:

"I wish it clearly understood that I am merely the legal representative of the Russian Socialist Federated Soviet Republic and of the Russian Volunteer Fleet with regard to these particular suits. My engagement carries no political significance whatsoever.

"These suits have been prepared for many months, but action has been delayed until now pending certain arragements which I am assured by cable have been perfected in Moscow.

"The Soviet Government announced to the world at large and the United States Government in particular that it would pursue title to these ships and it is in accordance with that announcement that these actions have been instituted.

"I have met Admiral Starck and his Chief-of-Staff, who have my utmost respect and admiration. The action I am taking is not a personal one against these gentlemen, as my clients have not interfered in any manner with the Russian refugees, but are merely concerned with the eleven ships now anchored in Subic Bay. As we cannot libel a ship in the Philippines, personal service must be had.

"I wish to add that the Governor General's office has from time to time been advised by me of these contemplated actions."

Coolidge has assumed the steering of the wheel of the ship of state. Mr. Coolidge, while Vice-President, made several speeches supporting Mr. Ackerman for re-election.

Mr. Coolidge is the logical candidate for renomination by the Republicans, Congressman Ackerman said, but it was possible that Secretary of Commerce Hoover would also seek the nomination. Among the Democrats the congressman considers William Gibbs McAdoo, Senator Underwood of Alabama and Henry Ford the most formidable candidates. Mr. Ford will run on the Democratic ticket and not as an independent if he runs at all in Mr. Ackerman's opinion.

The Congressman is an inveterate stamp collector, according to his own confession, and has a remarkable good collection. During his recent trip to Europe he was the personal guest of King George of England, who is also a stamp fan, according to Mr. Ackerman.

Congressman and Mrs. Ackerman were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Harold Dollar at dinner last night. They sail for Seattle today.

First Tests Of Peking Wireless Plant Successful

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Peking, August 13.—The following announcement of the result of the official tests of the high power wireless station at Shuangchiao, seven miles east of Peking, has been handed to Reuter's agency by the Mitsui Bussan Kaisha:

For the first time in the history of her aerial communication China has been linked up with every corner of the world by the successful completion of the high-power wireless station at Shuangchiao, seven miles east of the capital, and Peking, equipped with one of the most powerful radio units in the world, has now been turned into an important center along the routes of direct wireless communication between Asia and Europe and between Asia and America.

The wireless station at Shuangchiao has been constructed by the Japanese firm, Mitsui and Company, for the Chinese Government under a contract signed with the Ministry of the Navy in February, 1918, for the purpose of providing China with a high-power wireless station, which is capable of communicating with Japan, Europe and America, at an estimated cost of £536,267.

The construction work of the station having been completed by the end of July, the station was put to the first official test on August 10 in the presence of the representatives of the Chinese Government and Mitsui and Company, and the success of the test was confirmed by the following messages received and replies from the French wireless station at Bordeaux:

"We heard your signal perfectly well at 30.10 (at 4.15 a.m. in Peking) till 30.40, Greenwich meantime, on August 10, receiving it very strongly."

That the official test should have been carried through successfully at this season when atmospheric conditions are most unfavorable for aerial communication indicates the efficiency of the newly-built station. The test will be continued for some time with Sainte Assise, Mauen, Carnarvon, Marshall Islands and other centers of radio communication all over the world.

NO GROUND FOR LONDON'S HOPE OF NEW U.S. STAND

Position On European Situation Unchanged, Says Washington

(Reuter's Service)

Washington, Aug. 16.—High authorities today expressed surprise at the despatches from London indicating that the impression abroad is that there has been some modification of the American attitude with regard to reparations. It is pointed out that the statement made on behalf of President Coolidge completely reaffirmed President Harding's policy. It is authoritatively declared that the apparent feeling in London that a welcome change has occurred in the attitude of the Washington Government is altogether too optimistic.

It is pointed out that nothing has been said on behalf of President Coolidge indicating the slightest departure from Mr Hughes's statement at New Haven in December. The American point of view will not be determined until the plans abroad have matured and any suggestions to the contrary are wholly baseless.

(Reuter's Service)

Paris, August 16.—There is a much quieter tone in the press comments in consequence of the announcement that a detailed reply to the British Note will be issued shortly. The papers dwell on the necessity of preserving the Entente and now express appreciation of the British desire for agreement. They declare that the small difference between the sum asked for by the British Government and what is due them under the Spa percentage should facilitate an understanding.

Smuts Asks Nation To Back Britain In Ruhr Dispute

(Reuter's Service)

Bloemfontein, Aug. 15.—In a speech here today the Premier, General Smuts, referring to the Ruhr, appealed to South Africa to stand in sympathy with Britain in her effort to save Europe from destruction. He exhorted all the nations to rally round Britain to avert a worldwide disaster. The position, he said, was grave beyond words. If America saw the European nations support Britain, he believed that America would again rush to save a break-up of Europe, the consequences of which might not be wiped out in a century.

COMMISSION IS ORGANISED FOR LOCAL PEACE

Three Terms Laid Down At Meeting Yesterday For Provinces To Accept

A Kiangsu-Chekiang Peace Commission was formed yesterday at a meeting of the representatives of the gentries of the two provinces held at the Kiangsu Educational Association. Twenty-four will serve on the commission.

They are H. Y. Moh, the cotton magnate; Yuan Kwan-lai, Shen Hsin-ching and Huang Yen-pei, president and vice-presidents respectively of the Kiangsu Educational Association; Sze Liang-chai, managing director of the Shun Pao; Chang Yi-peng, ex-minister of Justice; Chang Chung-jen, Ex-Minister of Education, Moh Sutsai, manager of the Teh Tah Cotton Mill and Messrs. Huang Peh-yu, Chien Chian-tsai, Yao Tao Tse-shih and Hwa Heng-ching for Kiangsu and Yuan Li-teng, manager of the Ningpo and Shaohsing Steam Navigation Co., Yu Yan-ching, managing director of the Chartered Stock and Produce Exchange, Fan Chu-pah, vice-chairman of the Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Tao Chi-jen, son of the late Vicitory Tao Moh, Li Tseng-wu, manager of the Shang Pao; Sheng Tso-shu, president of the Bankers' Association, and Messrs. Wu Tsoau, Mao Yu-feng, Hsu Chien-hou, Hsu Shen-ju, Wang Hsiao-lai and Chiang Yi-shan.

The meeting was presided over by Mr. Tao Chi-jen, ex-director of the Taiho Conservancy. Many participated in the discussion but the meeting brought out three salient points to insure the peace of the two provinces.

1. No change should be allowed in the personnel of the military and civil administrations before the unification of the nation. This was suggested because it is expected that the Peking Cabinet, in attempting to strengthening the hands of the Chihlilites will probably issue a mahdate ordering the dismissal of the Chekiang military authorities, whose opposition would, it is predicted, draw an order for a military expedition to the province.

2. No troops of other provinces should be allowed to pass through either Chekiang or Kiangsu under any pretext whatsoever. This provision is to defeat the purpose of the Chihli party to enter Chekiang with the excuse that it desires to conquer Fukien; and a refusal by the province would ignite the spark which will set the province afire.

3. No troops of any other provinces be allowed to be stationed within a certain number of miles from the border line of either province. This will prevent direct military operation against either province.

It is understood that a manifesto embodying the three points will be addressed by the commission to the military and civil authorities of the two provinces for acceptance and signature.

How Britain Got Liberty Bonds

(Reuter's Service)

New York, July 16.—The mystery of how Great Britain acquired approximately $60,000,000 in Liberty Bonds, with which the first semi-annual payment of interest on the war debts to the United States was made recently, without disturbing the market to any appreciable degree, was explained today by a brokerage house. The bonds, the firm said, were bought almost entirely on the "outside market."

Few of the transactions, the firm asserted, were accomplished on the New York Stock Exchange and the purchases were made over a period of approximately two months.

Soviet Envoy Reaches Harbin

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Harbin, August 14.—M. Karakhan arrived at Harbin yesterday with his wife and a large staff. He was met by high Chinese officials, representatives of the Chinese Eastern Railway Administration, and delegations from the Democratic Russian organisations.

The Russian envoy was entertained to a banquet this evening by General Ma.

(Eastern News Agency)

Mukden, August 16.—A Harbin despatch dated August 16 reports:

The Chinese officials and civilians in Harbin are giving a warm welcome to M. Karakhan, Chinese newspapers have issued special editions welcoming the new Russian Envoy to Peking and praising him on behalf of the citizens of Harbin in such terms that it is he who renders the greatest services to the revival of the friendly relations of Russia and China. The papers reiterate the announcements made by M. Karakhan in 1919 and 1920 that all of what have been taken from China would be returned to her and express their hope that M. Karakhan will set a good example of international relationship based on justice. They further declare that the Versailles and Washington Conferences have made no contribution whatever toward the peace of mankind. In conclusion, they emphasise that the people of China should, by means of the "people's diplomacy," act in concert with the Russian people and thereby to achieve the reality of the international equality.

$400,000 Bequest

The bequest was made nearly three years ago, but the money has been held in Australia for a higher rate of exchange.

the office open, and furnishing the wherewithal to his large staff of clerks and assistants. The memorandum which he submitted to the government yesterday states that no funds have been received since last May, and that with the expenses totalling about $40,000 per month, the Committee faces a large debt.

It is particularly unfortunate that the work of the committee should be hampered at the present time, especially in view of the forthcoming arrival of M. Karakhan, the new Soviet Envoy to Peking, since there is much need of preparation on the part of the Chinese committee to compile all the necessary data.

The Cabinet has refused to accept Dr. Wang's resignation and has promised that funds will be raised to meet his most pressing needs, since it is a well known fact that the result of the Sino-Russian deliberations will have a far reaching effect on the future of the Chinese Republic, particularly with reference to the whole question of the Chinese Eastern Railway, and other subsidiary questions.

Mr. Karakhan is expected to arrive in Harbin on Monday and after conferring with M. Daviaan, the present counsellor of the Soviet Mission, and M. Joffe, the retiring delegate, who is on his way back to Moscow for reasons of health, will proceed to Peking, arriving here about the end of the present week.

COMMISSIONER FOR PHILIPPINES ARRIVES TODAY

And The Filipino Colony's Up In The Air As A Result

Filipinitis, the prevalent political rambunctiousness now rampant in the Philippines has struck Shanghai's Filipino colony with a bang that will echo for many days to come. The local colony including the string of exponents of the art fistania who have been showing their wares at the Stadium, are all upset over the political situation in the islands anyway, and then to make it worse along comes Resident Commissioner Pedro Guevara and completely upsets the well known apple cart.

Commissioner Guevara, who is en route to Washington to assume his official duties, arrives in Shanghai tomorrow on the President Cleveland. When Dr Villanueva Conlu, barrister, and one of the leaders of the local colony, received the news he made haste to the Rizal Club at 470a Chapoo Road, the social organization named after the Filipino hero and the only organized body of Filipinos in Shanghai, and advocated a banquet tomorrow night at Eddie's Cafe in honor of their distinguished guest. According to some of the little band of irreconcilables—of whom you will hear more—he suggested that $10 a plate would provide a crackerjack chow party and suggested that every member of the club herewith kick in.

OPPOSITION

Dr. Conlu immediately met opposition. In the first place, said the anti's, $10 was altogether too much filthy lucre to spend all at once for one opportunity of putting one's feet under the chow table, and in the second place, they didn't wish to appear to be taking sides in the big function now under full blast in Manila and environs. The best thing to do, continued the anti's, was for Dr. Conlu and any of the other patriots that wanted to to go down to the President Cleveland when she docked and greet the Commissioner, wish him all the success in the world in Washington, and let it go at that.

PEEVED!

At that Dr. Conlu is said to have grown slightly peeved, threatened dire consequences to the Rizal Club for their lack of enthusiasm, and made preparations to throw the party all by his lonesome, aided and abetted by any and sundry who wished to drop in at Eddie's.

At the present moment armed neutrality is reported to exist with the Conlu adherents predicting a record turnout at Eddie's tonight and lots of fireworks, the annual prediction of independence on the horizon and a liberal helping of oratory by all present, and the anti's wishing them luck, but not them, thank you, at ten shekels per plate.

Mr. Guevara was formerly senator from the Fourth Senatorial district, which includes Manila. Upon his election as the Junior Resident Commissioner at Washington, where, as the Philippines' representative in Congress he has a voice but no vote in the House, Governor-General Wood declared his seat vacant and called a special election in October to elect his successor. Ex-Mayor Fernandez of Manila is Senate President Quezon's candidate against Judge Juan Sumulong, the Democrata candidate, who is said to be a supporter of Governor-General Wood. The election is expected to be a test of strength between the Governor-General and Quezon, the Filipino boss politico, in their present disagreement over the administration of the islands.

Shanghai foreigners who were held captive by the Pao Tzu Ku bandits will give a tiffin in honor on Mr. Wen Shih-tsung, Commissioner of Foreign Affairs at Nanking, at the Union Club at noon today. Commissioner Wen took one of the leading parts in securing the captives' release, going into the bandit camp at one time early in the negotiations when, if the bandits had known he was a prominent official, he would very probably have been killed.

Several who took a prominent part in the negotiations, including Dr. Mertens, the Shanghai doctor who went into the camp to look after the sick, will be present in addition to the former 'guests' of the bandits.

Good Boxing Program On Card Tonight At Stadium

Filipino, Chinese And Russian Scrappers All Set For Some Lively Battles; Billy Tingle, Coming Here Later, Wins Bantamweight Title Of Orient

A good program of boxing has been promised for tonight at the Stadium, with about all the boxing talent in town at the present time on the card. The fighters who will appear tonight include Filipinos, Chinese and Russians, and all have been training hard for tonight's show.

The Filipinos include Kid Carletos, Terry Martin, Kid Loretto, Battling Kyko and others. The Chinese battlers are Henry Wong, Dragon Chao and Eat-Em-Alive Tsi Koa foo. The Russian scrapers are Zemski, Petroff and Walgast. The latter is a heavyweight and is eager to take on any man of his weight, 170 pounds, in town.

Kid Carletos is also itching for a scrap with any local amateur. Babe Siemsen preferred, and says he will concede twenty pounds to any of the local amateurs and guarantee to stop any of them in ten rounds. The Kid weighs in at 118 pounds.

These amateurs have been putting up some good scraps at the Stadium and tonight's bouts will be no exception. The Russians and Chinese, to whom boxing is a comparatively new game, have been working out every day for weeks, and are getting better as the go along.

MR. HENRY WONG
(Henry The Tailor)

Prominent sportsman who is managing a number of Chinese boxers. His boys are appearing at the Stadium Boxing Club. One of them, Tse Lin, has just won his first fight. Mr. Wong is also the president of the "Olympia Athletic Club," a newly organised sporting association.

In connection with Stadium affairs it will be interesting to fight fans to know that Billy Tingle, who is to appear at the Stadium in the near future, recently won the bantamweight championship of the Philippines, taking the title from Leonardo Garcia. A description of this title fight, from the Philippine Herald, follows:

Billy Tingle of Australia is the new bantamweight champion of the Orient.

Boxing in his usual clever, heady manner, Billy Tingle outpointed and outboxed Leonardo Garcia of San Pablo in a manner that left no doubt in the minds of the fans as to who was entitled to the decision handed down by Referee Hy Schramm.

Last night's main event was a boxing match the greater part of the way but toward the latter part Garcia changed his tactics and tried to slug and fight but he found Tingle ready to accommodate him.

Tingle blocked well, sidestepped beautifully and countered admirably. He showed plainly that he is perhaps the cleverest boxer in Manila at the present time. Garcia was good too but not good enough before the Australian.

The first three rounds appeared slow because many of the fans prefer fighting to boxing. Garcia adopted a submarine crouch from the start but this did not deter Tingle from jabbing his face markedly. Garcia shed the first blood of the fight in the fifth round when a right to the nose drew the claret.

Rounds 2 and 8 were even. Tingle won rounds 1, 3, 4, 5, 7, 11 and 12 while Garcia captured rounds 6, 9 and 10. The eighth round was one of the best rounds of the evening. Garcia had the first part of the session landing rights and lefts on the head but toward the latter part of the round Tingle rallied and jabbed Garcia at will and landed lefts and rights to head and body.

Realising that he had to win by big margin to upset the lead his man was having, Garcia started the ninth round with a rush but he found Tingle a willing scrapper. Garcia had the best of the exchanges in this round and the following. Tingle started hitting hard in the 10th round and in the last session a right to the jaw staggered the San Pablo boy across the ring.

Garcia weighed in at 117 pound and Tingle 116 ½ pounds.

Junkmen To Get German Fleet

(Reuter's Service)

London, July 2.—The German fleet, scuttled at Scapa Flow in June 1919, is to be raised, cut up, and sold for junk. The admiralty has signed a contract with a private company which has purchased part of the sunken ships, and will start operations at once to raise them.

The company is said already to have found a market for the hulks. If the operations are successful, a contract will be signed for the remaining section, which includes the largest of the ships.

Shanghai Yacht Now In Harbor At Durban

Word that the cables brought yesterday from far-off South Africa tell that the blue and white burgee of the Shanghai yacht Club is flying today from the masthead of the 27-ton yacht "Shanghai" in the harbor of Durban. The cable came to Mr. Frithjof Utne.

Six months ago six intrepid Shanghai yachtsmen embarked in their staunch little craft on a long voyage that they expect will end in six months more at Copenhagen. Those who started on the trip were Captain A. Kjaer, A. Ingwerson, E. Haugeland, P. N. Jansen, H. F. Vanman and V. Bentsen, all of whom had for several years been in the service of the Great Northern Telegraph Company aboard the cable ship Store Nordiske.

A period of heavy weather beset the voyagers shortly after their departure from this port and forced them to lay up at Amoy for repairs. Thence they proceeded on their 16,000 mile voyage to Denmark by way of Manila, and Batavia. At the latter port it was decided to reduce the crew, consequently Capt. Kjaer and Messrs. Jansen and Bentsen left the yacht there and traveled home by mail boat.

The yacht was then brought across the Indian Ocean by the three remaining adventurers, Captain Inhwersen now the skipper, Mr. Vanman and Mr. Haugelund. From Durban the course will be shaped northward along the coasts of Europe and Africa to Denmark.

The "Shanghai" is built from the design of a Norwegian life saving ketch and is fitted with one of Frithjof Utne's heavy duty crude oil engines as an auxiliary. The boat is of the same type as Mr. Ralph Stock's famous "Dream Ship," which sailed from England with a crew of three, one of them a woman, Miss Mabel Stock, all the way to the far distant South Sea Islands.

Foreign Trade Bodies Pass Resolutions Condemning Chinese Actions In Harbin

Text Received Here Of Protests By American And British Chambers To Anti-Foreign Propaganda And Attempted Eastern Railway Seizure

The recent attempted [illegible] by the Chinese Military authorities in Harbin of the Land Department of the Chinese Eastern Railway and the violent anti-Russian campaign being carried on in the Chinese press of the Manchurian city are the subject of strong resolutions passed by the American and British Chambers of Commerce of that place.

A copy of the resolutions passed by the Harbin American Chamber, on August 4, has been received by the local American Chamber and is given herewith, together with the resolutions passed by the British organization at Harbin.

ANTI-FOREIGN PERIL

The American trade body's resolutions are as follows:

Whereas, inflammatory articles and illustrations have been appearing during the past few weeks in the local Chinese press directed against the Russian population in North Manchuria urging that harsh measures be taken against the Russians, and

Whereas, such articles and illustrations aiming at inciting the Chinese are having the effect of arousing race antagonism against the local Russian population, and

Whereas, such antagonism is affecting the attitude of a large part of the Chinese population towards all foreign residents in Harbin owing to the inability of the majority of the Chinese to distinguish between nationalities and

Whereas, apparently no action has been taken by the local authorities to suppress this dangerous propaganda, which is contrary to the spirit mutually professed by the Foreign Powers and the Chinese Government at the Washington Conference,

Be it therefore resolved, that we, the American Chamber of Commerce in Harbin, call the state of affairs to the attention of the American Consul in Harbin with the request that he inform the Chinese Authorities regarding the dangers which may result from this attitude of the Chinese press, and at the same time, point out to them their responsibilities in this connection.

Be it further resolved that a copy of these Resolutions be sent to the American Consulate Harbin, the American Legation Peking, the Department of State at Washington, and the Associated American Chambers of Commerce of China.

THE RAILWAY DEMAND

The resolution dealing with the railway matter follows:

Whereas, the local Chinese Military Authorities on July 31 demanded of the Management of the Chinese Eastern Railway that the Land Department of that Railway be turned over to Chinese control, and

Whereas, this drastic demand, which would mean the turning over of a valuable asset of the Railway, was made direct by the local military authorities without being transmitted through the usual channels, and without previous notification to the representatives of the foreign governments, and

Whereas, such a step is bound to affect the extensive direct and indirect American and foreign commercial interests in property and in investments in the Chinese Eastern Railway zone, and to jeopardize the credits granted to the Railway on the basis of the present status quo, all of which we hold to be contrary to the understanding reached at the Washington Conference

Be it therefore resolved, that we, the American Chamber of Commerce in Harbin, record our protest against the taking over of the Land Department of the Chinese Eastern Railway by the local Chinese Military Authorities in this manner, and

Be it further resolved, that we record our approval of the action taken by the Interested Powers in their efforts to delay such steps by the local Chinese Military Authorities until the matter can be considered at Peking by the Chinese Government and the Ministers of the Interested Powers,

Be it further resolved that a copy of these Resolutions be sent to the American Consulate, Harbin, the American Legation, Peking, the Department of State, Washington, and the Associated American Chambers of Commerce of China.

BRITISH RESOLUTIONS

Following is the text of the resolutions passed by the British Chamber in Harbin:

1. That the recent action of the Chinese Military Authorities in attempting forcibly to take possession of the Land Department of the Chinese Eastern Railway, without having first negotiated the matter through the usual channels, being calculated to have a disturbing effect on economic conditions and so adversely effect British and other foreign business and interests, and further, to destroy confidence in the security of property and in its immunity from arbitrary seizure and

2. That the present virulent Anti-Russian propaganda, which is being carried on in the local Chinese press apparently without check or hindrance by the Authorities, being deemed as likely to create a state of affairs detrimental to the personal well-being and safety of property of British and other foreign nationals.

It is resolved that this Chamber registers its complete accord with the action taken by the Consuls of the four Powers interested in their efforts to delay the attempted seizure of the Land Department of the Chinese Eastern Railway by the local Chinese Military Authorities pending reference of the matter to the Chinese Government and the Minister of the Powers interested.

It is further resolved that the facts be brought to the knowledge of His Minister at Peking with a request that action be taken at his discretion to adjust the matters complained of and alleviate the state of affairs against which we hereby register our protest.

Russian Refugee Prisoners Escape

Peking, August 15.—The Russian prisoners who have been lodged in the Metropolitan Model Prison since last year escaped on Saturday, and the local authorities have been apprised of the occurence and requested to search for the foreigners who have broken gaol.

FINISH EVIDENCE IN MURDER CASE INVOLVING THREE

Taking of testimony was concluded at the Mixed Court yesterday in the case wherein three Chinese are charged with the murder of one Hyui Saung-ling, who was found with a bullet in his head in an alleyway off Fokien Road on April 27 last.

Final evidence for the prosecution was given by a Chinese detective sub-inspector, who stated that the first of the three accused, a youth of 18, had committed no fewer than five murders last year and was the head of a notorious gang of loafers. These murders, he said, had occurred outside the Settlement, so the police here had not investigated on this point.

The accused entered a general denial of the charge that they had lured the deceased to his death from his home on Thibet Road and Mr. Schonfeld, appearing for the first and second, asked a discharge on the ground that the evidence was all circumstantial and that no prima facie case had been made out. Mr. K. E. New, appearing for the family of the deceased, maintained that a prima facie case had been made out and cited testimony to the effect that the first accused had boasted of killing Hyui. The case was adjourned until Monday next.

WOMAN'S CLUB'S NEW YEAR BOOK IS ANNOUNCED

Volume Contains Valuable And Interesting Collection Of Papers

The Literary Department of the American Woman's Club announce the publication of the Year Book, "The Dawn of Chinese Civilisation" which includes the majority of the papers read before the Department during 1922-23. These papers have been collected in a very attractive volume with illustrations of some examples of Chinese art and may be bought at the Mission Book Company, 13 North Szechuen Road. It is requested that all members of the Club who have filled out slips for these books will present them to Miss Sarah M. Bosworth, Mission Book Company or to Mrs. W. F. Beaman at the Missionary Home, Quinsan Road, and obtain the number reserved for them.

This is the second of the series of publications gotten out by this Department, the first dealing more specifically with the art of China and the allied art-crafts. The present publication is chiefly concerned with history and literature of China from the earliest dawn of civilisation through the glorious period of the T'angs. Like its predecessor it professes only to present in permanent form the results of the research work by the members of the Department during the season. With these papers, which add a valuable handbook to the books on Chinese culture, are included several delightful translations of old Chinese folktales, which were told to the members of the Department by Mr. Chas Kliene and some interesting translations of Chinese poetry by Mrs. Avscough and others. The volume covers a wide range of subjects and is well worth the time given to its perusal.

TOMORROW TO BE BIG POLO DAY— 6 TEAMS TO PLAY

Four Junior And Two Senior Contests Are Scheduled

Saturday is to be one of the biggest "polo days" of the season if the weather permits the carrying out of the program that has been arranged. There will be senior and junior matches, with alternative chuckkers. Four teams will compete in the Junior matches, as follows: "A" team—Dr. Davis, Bertram, Rodger and Hughes; "B" team—Benbow-Rowe, Trenchard-Davis, Toeg and Tyler; "C" team—Lyon, Gordon, Stang-Lund and Baker. "D" team—C. L. Wilson, Maitland, McDonald and Martin.

These matches will start at 4 o'clock.

The senior matches will be between teams of candidates for the interport array that is to compete with Hongkong later in the season. The "Probables" will consist of Messrs. McMichael, Newbigging, Hickling and Grieg, while the "Possibles" will line up as follows: Robinson, G. Dallas, Springfield and A. N. Dallas. Thus it will be seen that all players will have a chance for a go at the little white ball during the afternoon, and the members are looking forward to some fine sport.

Russians Fined For Assault On Police Constable

Two Russians charged with assaulting a Chinese Constable and a coolie in the Public Garden Wednesday evening were fined $10 each by Assessor Allman and Magistrate Yui in the Mixed Court yesterday. Police testimony was to the effect that the men were beating the coolie with a stick when the constable appeared, whereupon they transferred the attack to him. One of the accused stated that he was seated on a bench with the other defendant, who was an invalid, when the coolie came up and demanded that they move, at the same time expectorating upon his companion. He had taken the invalid's stick and was chasing the coolie when the policeman appeared and tried to take the stick away, being accidentally struck in the tussle.

Claim Japanese Boycott Is To Be Stopped

(Eastern News Agency)

Peking, Aug. 15.—In connection with the anti-Japanese agitation, Japan has already more than once demanded the Chinese authorities concerned strictly to control the agitation and M. Yoshizawa, the new Japanese Minister to Peking, has, since his arrival at his post, once given a warning to the Chinese Government. As a consequence, the Chinese authorities have begun to pay their attention to the matter. It appears that they first intend to enforce their control over the agitation in Tientsin and then to do the same in the region along the Yangtsze River. Communiques have already been issued in Changsha and Wufu, announcing that the agitation would be strictly controlled. Consequently, a telegram that was received here from Changsha yesterday reports, the agitation has come to be considerably alleviated of late.

(Eastern News Agency)

Hankop, Aug. 15.—The anti-Japanese agitators originally intended to continue their activities for a period of three months but the term having now allready expired, they further held a meeting, as a result of which they have decided to carry through their original intention to sever the economic relations with Japan. Six members of the management of the Society of the Support of China's Diplomacy last night left here amid a hearty send-off by the representatives of several organisations of Wuhan with a view to negotiating with anti-Japanese agitators in Shanghai, Tientsin, and Tsingtao. Most of the agitators here are of the opinion that the reason why Japan fails to take any drastic counter measures against the agitation is mainly due to the lack of unification of the Japanese people and that if the economic relations between Japan and China were to be severed, Japanese capitalists are sure to force the Tokio Government to cancell the remaining part of the Twenty One Demands. Indeed they assert that one more effort is needed for the recovery of Port Arthur and Dairen. The delegates of the anti-Japanese agitators, who have left here for Shanghai, are taking with them hundreds thousands of handbills regarding the anti-Japanese agitation.

Turtle Branded By Capt. Cook In 1773 Is Found Alive

Washington.—A turtle left in the Tonga Islands by Captain James Cook, the English mariner, in 1773, or 150 years ago, was found there last month by Captain E. T. Pollock, Governor of American Samoa, according to a report to the Navy Department.

Despite the established proclivity of the species toward records for longevity, the turtle exhibited signs of extreme age, Captain Pollock said, adding that it was "blind, and when walking creaks like an ox cart."

'Regret Gibbons Didn't Knock Off' Dempsey's Block

Prescott, Arizona.—A resolution regretting that Tommy Gibbons "failed to knock Jack Dempsey's block off" was adopted by the Executive Committee of the Arizona State Department of the American Legion which was in session here. The resolution follows:

"Resolved that the Executive Committee of the American Legion Department of Arizona, having been informed at the conclusion of its session of the result of the Gibbons-Dempsey fight, regrets that Gibbons failed to knock Dempsey's block off."

COOKERY RECIPES

Ragout of Lamb or Mutton with Peas.—Required: 2lbs. of neck mutton and a pint of peas. Melt a little fat in a stewpan. Cut up the meat, dust each piece lightly with pepper and salt, and brown it in the fat. Prepare the peas and leave them wet. Toss them in as much flour as they will pick up. Put them into the pan, adding just enough water to cover them, a large lump of sugar, and a couple of sprigs of mint. Cover the pan, and stew gently for two hours, or a little more if the meat is tough. Turn all together into a large dish, and serve very hot.

Spoiled Cake Fritters.—The best of cooks spoil a cake now and then. Either it gets burnt, or it rises all on one side, or it breaks when she tries to turn it out of the tin. Use it up in the following way, and you will be turning your failure into a success. Cut the cake into neat little squares about a quarter of an inch thick, and fry them in a little butter or margarine in an open frying-pan till they are nicely browned. Put them on a hot dish, and trickle on to them, drop by drop, a few spoonsfuls of warmed raspberry or orange syrup. You should add just enough to flavor the little pieces of cake well, but so much that they become sodden. Powder them thickly with sifted sugar, and serve very hot. A stale sponge or rice cake may be used in this way.

Ichang Tai Wo Cheong Tea Hong

We beg to inform the public that our Hong in Ichang in the Province of Hupeh, China, has been established for over 40 years specially preparing Ichang Black Teas under the two famous chops "Wo Kee" and "Sin Pin" which are well known to all tea merchants abroad as well as in China. We have always been careful to select the finest leaves which give the best taste.

This year the tea is exceedingly good on account of fine weather, and we have prepared 414 chests of "Wo Kee" and 418 chests of "Sin Pin" which were all sold to the American firm of Wisner & Co. and the British firm of Dodwell & Co. In each of these chests there is a ticket bearing our Trade Mark Dragon and Phoenix and the Chinese characters "Tai Wo Cheong Tea Hong."

Lyceum To Have Season Of Many Big Attractions

A lengthy and unusually attractive program of attractions has been announced by the management of the Lyceum Theater for the new season opening about October 7.

The opening engagement at the Lyceum will mark the return here of Mr. Compton Coutts at the head of his own company. He is well remembered as one of the Bandman company stars playing here the part of 'Grumpy,' a part he became entitled in when he was understudying Cyril Maude in London.

Of particular interest is the announcement that the celebrated Irish tenor, John McCormick, may be heard here at the Lyceum as Mr. Strok is arranging an engagement for him.

Others who are returning after previous successes are Mr. J. C. Williamson, who was here last year with the Gilbert and Sullivan company, and Mr. Charles Salisbury and with a new company of "Quaints," and Signor Carpi, famous impresario, also brings an imposing opera company.

In addition, the A. D. C. will give their usual quota of performances which have always achieved such great popularity.

Quarantine Japan Imposed Does Not Delay Travelers

Following published reports that Shanghai and Woosung have been declared cholera infected ports by the Japanese authorities, it was learned here that absolutely no delay will be caused to passengers bound from Shanghai to Japanese ports.

At the office of the Toyo Kisen Kaisha it was stated that the restrictive regulations are being enforced less rigidly this year than ever before. Third class passengers only are subjected to an examination and those who passed through Shanghai, having embarked at some other port, are also exempt.

Exchange Fluctuations

Asia Banking Corporation

August 16, 1923

Spot and forward bar silver were unchanged in London yesterday. The New York price declined to 63⅜ cents and the London-New York cross rate is unchanged at 457. The only change in our official quotations here today was a rise in the Franc rate to 1275.

Our market here today was easy in the morning but firmed up in the afternoon. In the morning business in Sterling was done at 3s. 0⅝d. for August, 3s. 0⅛d. for September and 3s. 0⅝d. for October. Gold Dollars were done at 69⅞ for near and forward deliveries.

At the close, however, there were sellers of Sterling at 3s. 0⅛d. for August, 3s. 0⅝d. for September and 3s. 0⅛d. for October.

There were sellers of Gold Dollars at 70 for near and forward deliveries and sellers of Yen at 69⅞ for near delivery and 70 for forward.

Banks were quoting 3s. 1¼d., 71½ and 1325 for Sterling, Gold Dollar and Franc bills respectively.

India bought silver in London again yesterday and the Continent sold, the market closing steady. New York also report their market as steady.

Exchange Market

Messrs. Maitland, Fearon and Brand write as follows in their weekly report on the exchange market:

Exchange:—The London price of silver at 31⅛d. is ⅛d. higher than last week. The quotation for two months forward is 30⅞d. The Indian Bazaars have been buying during the week, but the Continent appears to have plenty of silver to dispose of at 31 pence or better. Or official rate for T.T. on London advanced ¼ d. to 3s. 0⅛d. There are practically no bills offering in connection with "Exports" but our local Gold Dealers have continued selling Gold T.T. and against this cover rates in the open Market have ruled at about ⅛d. above the official rates for August with ⅛d. per month down for forward delivery. Our stock of sycee is down Tls. 990,000 owing to the continuation of coinage of Dollars, a profitable transaction at present Tael-Dollar rates for the Chinese Banks. Our stock of Dollars has increased $1,180,000. Latest advices of silver actually shipped to Shanghai report Tls. 9,000,000 (value) on the way, of which Tls. 5,000,000 should arrive by the end of August and Tls. 4,000,000 in the first week of September.

Our stocks of silver are reported as follows:

Sycee and Bar Silver Tls. 24,927,000, a decrease of Tls. 990,000.

Chinese and Mexican Dollars $36,260,000, an increase of $1,180,000.

Estimated value Tls. 51,034,000 as against Tls. 64,745,000 held at this time last year.

DOES YOUR CHILD SUFFER FROM THEM?

Many children in this country are troubled with worms, some of the indications of which are irregular appetite, bad breath, grinding of the teeth in sleep, pain and swelling of the abdomen, irritation in the nose. Baby's Own Tablets, the Canadian children's remedy, given for a few days destroy worms, and a marked improvement in appetite and general health follows.

Guaranteed free from opiates and absolutely harmless even to the youngest infant, Baby's Own Tablets are a remedy for indigestion, constipation, croup, simple fever, diarrhoea and teething troubles. They are obtainable from chemists, also at 60 cents the vial post free from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 60 Kiangse Road, Shanghai.

Do you feel nervous, tired and run down? A cup of OVOMALTINE taken regularly with or between your meals will work wonders. Try it!

OVOMALTINE
is a pure food, contains no drugs. Obtainable from all dispensaries and provision stores.

Stability In Mexico

WITH China so upset that it seems impossible for this country to get much worse it is good to be able to chronicle the apparent return of Mexico to the fold of the safe and sane nations of the world. That return seems assured by the signing yesterday of the agreement between Mexico and the United States which is expected to lead to a resumption of diplomatic negotiations between the two neighboring republics—negotiations that have been held in suspended animation since 1917.

In the near future Mexico and the United States are expected to exchange Ministers and, with the return to normalcy, business is expected to go on 'as usual.' The United States has born the brunt of the trouble engendered by Mexico's rambunctiousness in the past because of the Monroe Doctrine and it is a notable advance toward world peace that the disturbing situation has been amicably settled.

Once peace is assured only one thing needs to be done in Mexico to insure the country's return to sanity and prosperity. That one hurdle yet to be taken is the election of a president—the one thing that has always proved to be the stumbling block in the path of peace on the American continent. Three candidates are already in the field and the campaign is getting steadily warmer in the race to succeed President Alvaro Obregon.

Under the Mexican Constitution General Obregon is barred absolutely from succeeding himself and is not a candidate for re-election. Confidential reports reaching Washington State say he will be impartial in the Presidential contest, show favoritism to no candidate, and that the only thing he will do will be to ensure an honest election.

The candidates already in the field for the Presidency are Plutarco Elias Calles, Adolfo de la Huerta and General Raul Madero. Calles, a native of Sonora, now Minister of the Interior, was formerly a Governor General and one-time Governor of the State. He is a radical of the extreme type, somewhat headstrong, and known to have taken the law into his own hands when he considered that occasion demanded. To a considerable extent he is backed by army leaders.

Probably the most popular candidate, as matters stand, is De la Huerta, another native of Sonora, who was former Provisional President chosen by the Provisional Congress to succeed Carranza during the gap between the latter's downfall and the installation of Obregon. He held that office until Obregon's inauguration in 1920. De la Huerta has not formally announced himself as a candidate, but has merely permitted it to become known to his friends that he might not reject an election "if the people want him."

De la Huerta is strongly supported by business and civilian interests, and is recognised as a constructive, practical man, disposed to seek good advice. During the last year, in his capacity as Minister of Finance, he has been conducting negotiations with the New York banking group, with a view to resumption of payment on Mexico's foreign debt, and is said to be held in favor by financiers with whom he has had contact, both in the country and Mexico.

General Raul Madero, the third candidate is a brother of the late Francisco Madero, and was formerly Governor of Nuova Leon. He served as a General in the Division of the North under Villa, and commanded the Zaragosa brigade, which performed brilliant exploits during the revolution of 1913-14. He is an American college graduate, and has lived at times in the United States. He is popular in the northern tier of Mexican States.

General Antonio Villareal is declared anxious to become a candidate, but up to the present support has not been encouraging.

Some complication has developed in the reappearance upon the scene in Mexican politics for the first time since the death of Carranza of former Minister of Finance, Luis Cabrera, sometimes called the "Cheshire Cat," after several years of retirement. He appeared in San Antonio a few days ago after having been in long conference with General Candido Aguilar, following which the latter, who had served as Minister of Foreign Relations in the Carranza Cabinet, published in the Mexican press a letter defending the Carranza Constitution.

It is believed in Washington that Cabrera is endeavoring to rehabilitate himself and preparing to break into the Mexican campaign by raising an outcry against any departure from the Carranza Constitution of 1917.

President Obregon has succeeded in bringing order out of chaos in Mexico and is to be greatly commended for his good work. If the friendly relations hitherto existing between the United States and Mexico are resumed Mexico, under Obregon's leadership, will be well on the way toward normalcy by 1924 when the elections are held. Then if the Mexican people are really sane again and carry out the elections in such a manner that there will be no military after effect Mexico will once more be a nation among nations.

More Truth Than Poetry

BY S. E. KISER

It is always the actor's ambition,
When he gets his first part in the play,
To reach a top-lofty position,
To be named with the stars of Broadway;
They may praise him in Troy or Topeka
And offer him local renown,
But he turns from such triumphs to seek a
Success in the roaring big town.

He never can know satisfaction,
And peace cannot enter his soul,
While Broadway's a distant attraction,
For there is his ultimate goal.
He dreams of the nightly ovations
And his name in a glorious blaze,
And he thinks with delightful sensations
Of the columns of wonderful praise.

And after long striving and pleading
Perhaps he is given a chance,
And the critics, his vanity feeding,
May add to the pride in his glance;
He is envied and petted and flattered,
He is noticed in crowded Broadway,
The doubts that once plagued him are scattered,
And he struts as a conqueror may.

But Broadway is fickle and cruel,
And after a failure or two
He spends his last quarter for gruel
Where the comforting greetings are few;
He has lived through his hour of glory,
He has gazed from above on the ranks,
And now the familiar old story—
He is booked to go back to the tanks.

We are amateurs, all, with ambitions;
We long for the chances we lack,
And life, with its fitful conditions,
Is a struggle to Broadway—and back.

Words From The Lips Of Wise Men

He that would have the perfection of pleasure must be moderate in the use of it.

We cannot be too much on our guard against reactions, lest we rush from one fault into another contrary fault.

Little do men perceive what solitude is, and how far it extends, for a crowd is not company, and faces are but a gallery of pictures, and talk but a tinkling cymbal, where there is no love.

We're interested in these amateur fights they're planning of putting on in Shanghai to the extent of proposing a nice little shrinking violet that carries death in one fist and destruction in the other. He's just a poor Russian thats been a selling flowers for a living and we'd like to see him make a few shekels fighting, but we warn the management before they match our boy they want to have a flock of burial permits around because they'll need 'em. POLICE TAX AT MOKANSHAN

Editor, THE CHINA PRESS

Articles have appeared in Shanghai papers on this subject. Now that the Directors of the Mokanshan Association have come to a decision a brief statement of the case may be of interest.

To begin with let us clear up two points. First, the suggestion that Chinese who have built houses on the mountain are responsible for the proposed tax is without foundation. Chinese have always been welcomed, not only as residents but as members of the Association, and have proven friendly and often very helpful. Not one of them has anything to do with the tax. All are opposed to it, though some are paying it "to save trouble."

Second a correspondent in one paper speaks of the "heavy levy by Chinese soldiers." This too is a mistake. For more than twenty years a few soldiers have been stationed on the mountain. They have always been friendly and have made no financial demands, although the Association has annually made them a present. The tax is levied by the Police who were brought here to protect the interned Germans and have remained ever since. A bonus is annually given to them as well as to the soldiers.

What is the tax? In July all householders received a notice printed in English and Chinese, forwarded through the post by the local police office, saying that a new tax would be levied by order of the Chekiang Constabulary. Those who know Mokanshan know that we have always acted, not as individuals but together as a voluntary Association. The authorities ignored the Association but the latter, in response to numerous requests, took up the matter and wrote to the Chief of the provincial Constabulary at Hangchow. In reply the Wukong Magistrate, to whom a copy of the letter was forwarded, sent a very courteous note and from Hangchow a personal representative was sent. This representative addressed a letter to the officers of the Association. Two of the officers also had interviews with him and with the local Chief of police, which interviews were courteous and in a good spirit. The views of these gentlemen were reported fully to the Directors of the Association, who gave the matter full consideration from every standpoint. The result was that a letter was sent to the Chief of Constabulary of the Province giving reasons why we could not meet their request and pay the tax. The gist of the reply was that there is no precedent for such a house tax and that it is difficult for us to understand why such a tax should be instituted for Mokanshan.

The local Chief of Police submitted a year's budget for the maintenance of his office amounting to $4,880, which is just the size of the Association's budget for running the whole mountain. The police propose as far as possible to meet this budget by taxing houses classified as first, second, and third class. First class to be $40. Second class $30, Third class $20. However in order not to appear exorbitant they agree to make the rates $30, $20 and $10. In return for such taxation the Association gets absolutely nothing toward running the resort. The budget provides for salaries of chief, secretary, corporals, police, servants, coolies, incidentals, and for street lamps, refuse boxes, and street sweeping. The road service is a useless expenditure as the Association looks after its own roads, sanitation, and caretakers. The proposed tax will not in any way reduce the budget of the Association for the upkeep of the place. The police will "watch" the houses but not be responsible for thefts, so caretakers will still be needed; they will "sweep the roads," but not repair them or make new ones. It seems most unreasonable that people who spend a few weeks on Mokanshan should be taxed to support a police force twelve months in the year.

Attention was called to the large contribution made by the summer residents to the material prosperity of this section, which if reckoned in dollars runs up into the thousands annually creating as we do a market for labor and produce in comparison with which the expense of protecting the places is a mere bagatelle.

The Chekiang officials have always shown a friendly attitude, which we greatly appreciate, and we do not believe for a moment that broad minded men as the Military Governor, Gen. Lu, the Civil Governor, Mr. Chang, and the Chief of Constabulary, Mr. Ha'a, can approve the imposition of such a tax upon foreigners and Chinese who have brought nothing but benefit to the province by developing this splendid resort, recently pronounced the "most beautiful of all" by a man who has been to all the summer resorts of the land. We sincerely trust that this agitation will not lead to any friction between us and the friendly powers that be.

The Marvel Of The Phonograph

BY GARRETT P. SERVISS

"When a single note of a given pitch is reproduced on a phonograph, the diaphragm vibrates at a constant rate during the entire duration of the sound. In what manner does the diaphragm vibrate when several notes are to be reproduced at the same time? Apparently it has the property of vibrating at several different rates at the same time. How is this possible?—I. S., Dorchester, Mass."

The vibrations of the diaphragm, whether in reproducing the sounds or in giving motion to the stylus which records the sounds by either indented or waving lines on a prepared disk, simply follow the vibrations of the air by which the sound is conveyed.

These vibrations are the resultants of many combinations of the original sound waves. On the record shorter waves may be superposed on longer ones, somewhat as wind ripples ride upon water waves. But the ear is able to appreciate both in combination. John Tyndall, who was the most "human" of scientists, has given the best description of the multitudinous impressions simultaneously transmitted by the air by virtue of the principle of superposition that I am acquainted with.

"The same air," wrote Tyndall, "is competent to accept and transmit the vibrations of a thousand instruments at the same time. When we try to visualise the motion of the air to present to the eye of the mind the battling of the pulses direct and reverberated—the imagination retires baffled from the attempt.

"Still, amid all the complexity, the law holds good, every particle of air being animated by a resultant motion, which is the algebraic sum of all the individual motions imparted to it. And the most wonderful thing of all is that the human ear, though acted on only by a cylinder of that air, which does not exceed the thickness of a quill, can detect the components of the motion, and, aided by an act of attention, can even isolate from the aerial entanglement any particular sound."

If two notes are sounded absolutely together they will either extinguish one another if equal and meeting in opposite phases, or they will to a greater or less extent reinforce or diminish one another, or if they differ in pitch, i.e., in rapidity of vibration, the one may, as it were, ride upon the other. In any case, what the phonograph records is the resultant of the combinations imparted by the waves in the air. It does not contain on the record disk or cylinder impressed waves or curves corresponding to the tones of each of the instruments or voices that actuate the stylus, but only a continuous curve or a continuous line of varied indentation, which bears the impress of the resultant, or complex, sound wave formed by the combination of the effects of all the tones that are heard together. It is, as Tyndall pointed out years before the phonograph was invented, the ear that disentangles, or evaluates, this complex sound.

When a violin is played, and then a flute or a piano, the hearer recognizes immediately which instrument is producing the music, even though each plays the same tune in the same key, and the listener does not see the instrument. If the tune played by each instrument in turn is record by a phonograph, there will be differences in the impressions made on the waxed cylinder or plate, corrsponding to the peculiar form that each instrument imparts to its soundwaves.

Then, if all the instruments are played together the effect is combined in a single record line, but the attentive ear can isolate the sound of each instrument—a feat transcending anything that the eye can do with the combined waves of different colors that compose the orchestra of sunlight, for the eye must first have the waves separated by refraction before it can distinguish them. And the same thing happens when the sounds of all the instruments of an orchestra are recorded by the phonograph.

The record has only one line, but that line by its form contains the integrated impression of the resultant sound produced by all the combined tones, and this is recorded so faithfully that when the record is mechanically turned back into music the ear can still successfully exercise its marvellous power of recognition.

It sometimes seems to me that Edison never did a greater thing than when he invented the phonograph.

NEW GEMS by O. HENRY

A Treasure-Trove of Humor From His Newly Discovered Newspaper Writings

EXPENSIVE VERACITY

A Houston man who attended a great many of the services of Sam Jones, the evangelist, was particularly impressed with his denunciation of prevaricators and lies of all kinds, white, variegated and black.

So strongly was he affected and in such fertile ground did the seed sown by the great evangelist fall, that the Houston man, who had been accustomed to occasionally evade the truth, determined one morning he would turn over a new leaf and tell the truth in all things, big and little. So he commenced the day by scorning to speak even a word that did not follow the exact truth for a model.

At breakfast, his wife said:

"How are the biscuit, Henry?"

"Rather heavy," he answered, "and about half done."

His wife flounched out of the dining room and he ate breakfast with the children. Ordinarily Henry would have said, "They are very fine, my dear," and all would have been well.

As he went out the gate, his rich old aunt with whom he had always been a favorite, drove up. She was curled, and stayed, and powdered to look as young as possible.

"Oh, Henry," she simpered, "How are Ella and the children? I would come in but I'm looking such a fright today I'm not fit to be seen."

"Yes," said Henry, "you do. It's a good thing your horse has a blind bridle on, for if he got a sight of you he'd run away and break your neck."

His aunt glanced icily at him and drove away without saying a word.

Henry figured it up afterward and found that every word he said to her cost him $8,000.

REALISM

"The world is a stage," says the modern young miss.

"I will marry the best that I can.

You may keep all the heroes and lovers that kiss.

So you give me the property man."

IF IT COULD SPEAK

They were taking a stroll last evening down by the bayou. She was sentimental and he was the opposite. She gazed down into the murky depths of the water and said:

"If this bayou could speak, what tales it could tell! Since it has ebbed and flowed within its deep-worn banks what a variety of shifting scenes, what panoramas of war, pestilence, love and conflicting passions have transpired within sight and sound of its waters! Ah, if it could only speak!"

"If it could," said the young man, holding his nose with his handkerchief. "I bet a dollar it would speak of the dead languages."

:-: Hand Language :-:

BY RITA WEIMAN

The eyes are the windows of the soul, they say. But it is so very possible to close the windows. If you would know a man or woman, watch the hands. By this I'm not referring to people who talk with their hands. Not at all! But the fact remains that we can control the expression of the eyes. We are more or less conscious of whether they look directly into those of the person with whom we are conversing. We know whether they are revealing thoughts or concealing them. Any attractive woman can tell you what she's making her eyes say at any given moment. Any clever man can make his express to any woman precisely what he wants her to believe. Whether she believes it or not is another matter. But the fact remains that the language of the eyes is more or less obvious.

The hands, however, are different. Often without the knowledge of their possessor they are a sure index to the character of both man and woman. Your coarse man will not have fine hands, though his eyes may be pleasant enough. The hands of a fine woman can't possibly be gross. They may not be beautiful, but they will be delicate.

I know a man, every feature of those face, every line of whose body would indicate the man of business. Talking to him you would not credit him with being anything else—the sort who loves good food, good friends, luxury, and has them all. Yet his hands are those of an artist. His figure is round; his face is round and smiling; but the hands are long, the fingers slender and finely shaped. And the man in his soul is an artist. It will crop out, this unexpected trait, at the oddest moments. He will look at an etching and pick out its good points. He will luxuriate in a lovely piece of Chinese embroidery. He will walk round the grounds of his country home and draw your attention to some trees whose branches droop more gracefully than the others. He will rearrange the flowers in a vase. All without the slightest realisation that he is expressing his inner self.

I don't mean that this is his real self any more than the side interested in business. We are all so many-sided and each side expresses the real man or woman in one mood or another. But the hands more than often tell the secret of the innermost consciousness of which we are frequently least conscious.

Did you ever see a person with puffy hands who wasn't self-indulgent? Take a look next time. Notice the woman whose hands are little, fat and very white, so that they look something like a boneless squab, and see if she does anything big or generous. When you're contemplating a business deal with a man, watch his hands, not his face. See if they are thin, bony and hard. If they are, he's likely to get the best of you by shrewd, though honest, means. If they're soft, flabby and limp, he's going to get the best of you by dishonest means. The man whose grip is loose is loose in character, however, his eyes may inspire confidence. The man whose hand is broad, with fingers sufficiently long to be well-formed instead of squat, is pretty certain to give you a square deal. He wouldn't stoop to meanness of any kind.

Hands are generous, cruel, airy, frank, sensitive, gross, clever, stupid, common, fine; and all without knowing that they are. Their expression has nothing whatever to do with beauty or ugliness, shape or size. It is absolutely and completely, for those who care to read, a card index of the book of character.

If a woman learned to read the language of hands rather than lips and eyes, there wouldn't be so many feminine broken hearts. Eyes can play the love game as cleverly as lips. Their team work is perfect. They drive tandem without stumble. But the hands tell another story—if one isn't too busy holding them—and the girl who studies a man's hands will pull away more than once before she puts her own into them.

If the language of hands were an open book, I wonder how many of us would go about wearing gloves?

HEALTH AND FRESH AIR

Fresh air is a valuable aid to health. Send the children out to play in the air as long as the sunshine lasts: they will not object to that. Let them go out with their food in a basket and picnic in the open if any woods or parks are near. When everyone has gone to school or work, open every window and door and let the air sweep through the rooms. Teach the children to keep their mouths clean with brush and tooth powder. Be cautious in avoiding infection, but let there be no fear, no panic. "The other day I had to go into a fever hospital," says an English physician; "the ward I visited contained nearly twenty patients suffering from diphtheria. It may cheer you up to know that I am still alive, although I suppose the germs are snapping at my heels all the time. And I met the sister-in-charge, such a dear. I always like to think kindly of the nursing profession. How would you like to spend your working day in an atmosphere of diphtheria? Some of you hardly dare go down the street where a case of diphtheria occurred last week. And she looked so well, bless her, and had such a smiling face, and she kept every window in the ward wide open. When a child comes back from the fever hospital, watch for two possible developments. One is difficulty in reading print, and the other is weakness of the legs in walking. They are not common, but should be noticed early, and medical advice taken. If possible, every convalescent child should go away for a change of air."

Charge Mountain Tribes Are Exploited By The Christians

Manila, Aug. 1.—Exploitation of non-Christian tribes of Northern Luzon by Christian Filipinos to a "detestable degree" is charged in a Philippine Constabulary report received here yesterday from the provincial commander of Apayao.

Ignorant mountain people are deceived by tobacco buyers, mostly Christian Filipinos, who use illegal weights and measures, according to the report. The exploitation is especially manifest in the marketing of tobacco, principal commodity of the mountain people, states the report.

"Serious trouble may also arise if the treatment accorded non-Christians in Cagayan by some Christians who hold forestry lumber licenses is not checked by the government," warns Deputy Governor Tomas N. Bianco in a report to the governor of the Mountain province. Christians not only prohibit the Kalingas from cutting lumber and rattan for their own use, but confiscate all products the latter may have for sale, declares Mr. Blanco.

Efforts are being made by Constabulary officials to get a square deal for the mountain people according to the provincial commander of Apayao. A recommendation has been made to the governor general to remedy this situation, the report says, by giving special permission to the mountain people to sell their produce in the adjoining provinces free of licenses and taxes. A suggestion has also been made to appoint a government agent to be stationed at Abulog, Apayao, whose duty will be to see to it that the mountain people, particularly the Itnegs, get a square deal.

According to the provincial commander, the internal revenue law is working hardship upon the mountain people because it prevents them from taking their products outside their own subprovince, Apayao, this hindering the development of their trade. Abulug market offers the best price for the products of the Itnegs, the report states, the price of commodity being about three times higher than in other localities.

A market at Kabugao was inaugurated on February 22, but it appears, the report states, that it is a failure because the people of the sub-province have nothing to sell except tobacco leaves, and also because Christian merchants prefer to go to the homes of the people and buy tobacco there. The wide distribution of the mountain people in the subprovince also accounts for the failure of the Kabugao market.

There is a strong competition among the Christian merchants in Apayao in the buying of tobacco leaves from the mountain people. They try to beat each other in taking advantage of the low price of tobacco when obtained at the spot where it is produced, the report states.

In this connection Director of Forestry Fischer has sent the following report to the secretary of agriculture and natural resources:

"The undersigned is of the opinion that the best solution to protect these non-christian people from the extortions and abuses of certain licenses, is to establish post-exchanges similar to those organised in the Moro provinces. Rattan or timber licenses may be issued to those in charge of these enterprises for given areas under which rattan or timber collected by the non-Christian people may be manifested. If this cannot be done, such licenses may be issued to a responsible party, say a chieftain, upon application. A similar suggestion has already been given to the governor of the Mountain province.

"The local forest officer has already been instructed to investigate the seeming abuses committed by several of the licensees of this bureau on the non-Christian people, in Pinukpuk, Kalinga. As soon as the required report is received, appropriate action will be taken against them."

Daughter Of Russ Army Leader Shot For Hiding Vessel

Mademoiselle Brussilov, daughter of the former commander-in-chief of the Russian army, has been executed by the Soviet, according to the Echo de Paris.

The death sentence was passed upon her because sacred vessels she was guarding were found in her possession.

Inasmuch as her father, in his capacity of enforced technical adviser, had given signal service to the Soviet Government, the prisoner was told a petition for pardon in her favor would be favorably considered. She replied:

"I accept no grace from the bloody hands of the torturers of the Russian people."

Whereupon she took her place before the firing squad.
